PURE LIVERPOOL SALT—COARSE AND FINE, by R. PITTOCK,
Corner First and Morrison Streets,

Resignation of Isaac N. Arnold.

Isaac N. Arnold, formerly Representative in Congress from the First Illinois District, which includes the city of Chicago, and recently Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department, has tendered his resignation to the President in the following sharp letter:

WASHINGTON, September 29, 1866.

To Andrew Johnson—Sir: I hereby resign the office of Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department.

Three days before his assassination, the position was tendered to me by President Lincoln, to facilitate the preparation of a record of his Administration and the overthrow of slavery in the republic, which I then hoped he would live to completely consummate. When I accepted the commission from you, which death prevented him from issuing, I did it in the full faith, based upon your patriotic record during the rebellion, and your repeated declarations over the dead body of the martyred President, that your policy would make treason "odious," and that you would be faithful to the loyal men, North and South, who had saved the republic; that you would endeavor to carry out the principles which will make Lincoln's Administration illustrious to all time.

I will do you the justice to say that I believe if, while you were addressing the Illinois delegation who waited on you and tendered you the same support they had given their own great statesman—if at that moment, when your heart seemed full of loyalty and fidelity, and you told us the "people must understand that treason is the blackest of all crimes and will surely be punished," and that "when the question of exercising mercy comes before me it will be considered calmly, judicially, for we must not forget that what may be mercy to the individual is cruelty to the State"; if at that time your future course could have been held up before you and your future apostacy could have been foretold, you would have indignantly exclaimed: "Is thy servant a dog, that he should do this thing?"

You have betrayed the great Union party which elected Abraham Lincoln, which as an incident of the election placed you in the office of Vice President. You have deserted its principles, and are, to-day, in open, cordial communion with those who sought the overthrow of the republic; of those who for four long years made war upon our flag, and who crowned their long catalogue of crimes by the murder which placed you in the Executive chair.

You are to-day persecuting and denouncing the life-long friends of Abraham Lincoln—those on whom his great arm leaned for support in the hour of supreme peril for the Union. You are denouncing and persecuting those friends of Lincoln for no offence but fidelity to the principles and party which you have deserted.

You have chosen as your friends and counselors from the lately rebellious States, not the persecuted, abused, faithful, heroic Union men, but those whose hands are yet stained with the blood of loyal men. In the loyal States your supporters and counselors are, to a great extent, those whose sympathies were ever with rebels and traitors.

In your present position, and with such associates, it is natural that you should hate those whose fidelity must be a constant reproach to you. You are persecuting in Illinois and elsewhere the old personal friends of Lincoln at the instance of his life-long enemies.

Mr. President, the American people, in their hour of bitterest anguish, when almost stupefied with grief over the murder of the noblest, grandest character which has adorned our history, heard your voice uttering bold, indignant, loyal, patriotic words, they took you to their hearts and gave you their confidence: Where are you to-day? Who are your associates and advisers? What promise made over the dead body of Lincoln have you kept? What pledge then uttered have you not broken?

Sir, you are wielding immense power and patronage, but I tell you—not in anger, but in deepest sorrow—there are few names other than that of the rebel chief as yet in Fortress Monroe so odious among loyal men and so popular among traitors as that of Andrew Johnson. With fidelity you would to-day have been the first of American statesmen; with fidelity on your part there would to-day have been harmony in all departments of the Government, and peace and security throughout the republic; with fidelity it was yours to have saved the country. God and the people will prevent your treachery from destroying it.

I will not contrast your policy with that of your illustrious predecessor, but I shall ask your attention to one point only. To the loyal black man and to the loyal white man of the South Lincoln promised protection and security. He kept his promise. When rebel emissaries, such as you pardon and take to your confidence, proposed to him to return to slavery the black soldiers of the Union army, and thus win the masters they had fought, Lincoln indignantly replied: "Should I do so I should deserve to be damned in time and eternity." How can you, Mr. President, occupy the Executive Mansion as the successor of Lincoln, how could you visit his grave with the bloody outrages of Memphis and New Orleans unpunished? Do you remember that Lincoln said, "Negroes, like other people, act upon motives. If they stake their lives for us they must be prompted by the strongest motives—even the promise of freedom; and the promise being made must be kept."

The nation promised the negro liberty and protection for helping it to put down the rebellion. You have turned him over to his exasperated master, whom he helped to subdue. When did you punish a rebel for the murder of a loyal negro? The rebels are to day your counselors. They and Copperheads constitute a large majority of those who call themselves your friends. They control your patronage.

Believing you are to-day exerting your vast power in the interests of the traitors, and that your policy should be overthrown at the ballot box, that the Republic, based on liberty and justice may live, I retire from office that I may more freely and effectively aid in that overthrow.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully etc.,
ISAAC N. ARNOLD.

GRANT'S OPINION OF COPPERHEADS.—The New York Evening Post of October 2d, makes the following editorial statement:

The country holds with General Grant, who said in our hearing not long ago, that the rebels we whipped, as it was our duty to do; they fought us bravely, and I for one have no spite against them; if they behave themselves I shall think well of them; but the Copperheads and peace men at the North, the men who during the war reviled the soldiers and encouraged the enemy, and did their utmost to stop supplies and reinforcements to our boys in the front, such men I can't forgive; I will never forget them or have anything to do with them.

"JOHN BRIGHT UPON "ACROSS THE CONTINENT."—"Carleton," the famous war correspondent of the Boston Journal, is now in England, and writes home an interesting account of an interview with John Bright, the first of English republicans; in the course of which he says:

My good friend Bowles will doubtless be gratified to know that "Across the Continent" has found its way to England. "I have just been reading it," he said, speaking of the work, "and I am amazed at the vastness and resources of America. It is a clever book, and gives one a lively idea of the amazing progress of your people."

JOHNSON'S VISITORS.—A Washington dispatch of the 3d October says:

The President was again literally overwhelmed to-day with visitors. Senator Johnson of Maryland, Cole of California, and James Brooks of New York, were granted interviews. A portion of the Cabinet were also in conference with the President to-day. The Treasury Department has prepared and issued elaborate instructions to Collectors of Customs on the northern frontier to carry out effectually the late act of Congress to prevent smuggling. The officers have nearly broken up an extensive system.

The name of George Robinson, of Maine, the soldier who saved the life of Mr. Seward on the night of the assassination of President Lincoln, appears among the list of vice presidents of the Pittsburg Convention. But the Secretary is now in boon fellowship with the men who a year and a half ago sought his life.

The Sibylline Offer.

We have stated elsewhere the precise terms upon which the loyal American people—and we use the word loyal not offensively, but for distinction—are willing to allow the return of the late insurgent States. These are the terms which they are now willing to offer. The offer will doubtless be universally and emphatically ratified at the rest of the autumn elections. It will then be for the unrepresented States to determine whether they will accept the terms. The intelligent men in those States know perfectly well, whatever the Democratic Copperhead papers and orators among us may say, that there is no vindictive feeling whatever, upon the part of the Union party, no desire of personal revenge, no disposition to disregard the peculiar structure of our political system. But they also know quite as well that it is the very general conviction of that party that there will necessarily be serious agitation until the country can see that equality of rights among the people is in the way of being everywhere established.

The Boston Advertiser, in recently speaking of this subject, truly remarked that the progressive settlement of these questions was like the offer of the Sibylline books. To-day you may have all for a price. To-morrow you can have less for the same price. The day after still less. Six years ago all that was asked was, that slavery should not go into the territories. The offer was rejected, and the slave States made war. In the first months of the war some of the Generals returned fugitive slaves, and offered to suppress insurrections. In a few months afterwards there was a general demand for colored troops and emancipation. In the second year slavery was generally abolished by proclamation. At the end of the war the defeated States were required by President Johnson to adopt the Emancipation Amendment. They are now asked to guarantee civil rights. It is for those States to consider. What have they gained by refusing to allow that slavery should not go into the territories, or by making war? What would they have gained by rejecting the Emancipation Amendment? What will they gain by rejecting the amendment now offered?

Had the popular leaders in those States been wise they would have been early convinced that the people who had suppressed the rebellion would not suffer those who opposed them in the field or at the polls to settle the terms upon which the Union should be restored. That indeed was doubtless the first conviction of the Southern leaders, which the President's course, however, relaxed. But they should have known the loyal American people well enough to understand that they would not hesitate to repudiate a President even of their own election if he assumed to settle the great question of the war without heeding them in the persons of their representatives. At least they should learn by the elections of the autumn, of which we have already seen the beginning, that the terms offered by Congress cannot be set aside by the President nor by any lawful power. Do the States in question imagine that the terms will be made easier? Do they suppose that the people are likely after the canvass of this year to reduce their demands? Let them remember the Sibylline books. It was not the price that was diminished.—Harper's Weekly.

A MASTERLY ORATION.—The following is the noble speech made by President Lincoln at the dedicatory services at the Gettysburg Soldiers' Cemetery. The oration has been highly eulogized wherever it has been read by intelligent people, and has received the highest encomiums from the Quarterly Review, which compares it to Pericles' masterly production:

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those that gave their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it cannot forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to the cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion;—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that the nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that Government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth.

COST OF THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP.—A dispatch to the New York Tribune, dated September 18th, says:

The fact has leaked out that the late Presidential excursion has completely bankrupted the finances of the Johnson National Union Club, leaving it $30,000 in debt. At a meeting last night, Cornelius Wendell stated the condition of the Club's finances, and said an assessment should be made of $5,000 each on two Cabinet officers and $2,500 on another. This means that Seward, Randall and Welles will, after all, have to pay their own excursion bills.

It is known here that the treasury of the Club was bankrupt before the party left Philadelphia, and that drafts given for bills contracted there could not be paid on presentation. One member of the Cabinet alone ran up a bill at the Continental of $700. This explains the recent visit of Knapp and Wendell to New York for the purpose of squeezing money out of the office-holders. Their ill success, and also that of the Johnson Departmental Club in drumming up recruits, and the $30,000 deficit in the treasury, has started a competition, and the following letter is being sent to every clerk in the Department:

YOUNG MEN'S NATIONAL UNION CLUB,
WASHINGTON, September 27, 1866.

Sir: I have the honor to inform you that there has been organized in this city a Young men's National Union Club, to be composed of citizens who actively support the principles enunciated by the Philadelphia Convention of August 12, 1866. We shall be pleased to receive your signature to the Constitution, at the headquarters of the Club, as above stated. One of the Secretaries is in attendance from 4 to 9 P. M., each day. Initiation fee, $5; monthly dues, $1.

Very respectfully,
CHAUNCEY H. SNOW,
President of Y. M. N. U. Club.

A special, dated September 24th, says: Colonel John Tyler, son of ex-President Tyler, and candidate for the Virginia State Senate against Robert Ould, ex-Rebel Commissioner of Exchange of Prisoners, pasted posters about the city of Richmond on Saturday, September 22d, branding H. Rives Pollard, editor of the Richmond Examiner as a coward, etc., and to-night news is received privately that a duel has been arranged between the parties. The difficulty arises out of a political controversy, the Examiner having retorted to Colonel Tyler's card published in the Enquirer, which accuses Pollard in very uncharitable terms with being sustained and supported by certain Northern capitalists.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 1, 1866.

A Protectorate for Mexico.

If we may believe current reports, the United States Government is about to receive another grant of land from Mexico; this time in consideration of wresting that country from its despoilers and confirming its own people in possession of their territory, and in the enjoyment of their right to govern themselves. Such has been the course of our Government hitherto in relation to the Mexican question,—its cowardly, trifling and foolish irresolution,—that it is not easy to believe that these last rumors of immediate interference are anything more than the mere talk of the day, already repeated too often to excite special attention or create even a very small sensation. Though the New York Times positively announces that the United States will extend a protectorate over the Government of Juarez and send a large army to Mexico to maintain it, there may be many reasonable doubts as to the authenticity and credibility of the story. The line of policy pursued by Seward and Johnson up to this time would not warrant the supposition that they are now actually preparing for so bold and decisive a step. This idea of a protectorate is probably nothing more than a variation of the old story that the Monroe doctrine is to be immediately vindicated. There is every probability that it will prove to be merely another attempt to diversify a piece of fiction that by repeated relation has long since grown stale. Or again, it may be a show of spirit on the part of the Administration, intended to have some influence in the coming elections. The President and his principal Secretary are tricky politicians, full of little expedients to help them to temporary advantages; and this story of a protectorate for Mexico may be started with this view, the same as Seward's remonstrance with the Canadians on behalf of the Fenian prisoners was published for a like purpose.

But it must be granted that things wear a more favorable appearance for the Mexican Liberals than at any time for several years past. The Empire of Maximilian was bankrupt long ago, and is constantly sinking into deeper pecuniary embarrassments. The French troops are to leave Mexico—their debarkation to begin in January. Louis Napoleon is in a condition to think more about his future state than of the cares of Empire. He is rapidly sinking into the grave, and would not be likely to undertake a war which would, after his decease, embarrass the infant successor of his throne. Austria, since her humiliation by Prussia is not respected anywhere; and Maximilian can obtain but little assistance from home. It was announced some time ago, that the interloper was left entirely to his own resources. Such being the case, there is a chance for Mexico. The prospects of the republic are certainly growing brighter as time speeds on. The Mexicans might, ere long, be able without assistance to deliver themselves from the rule of the upstart Emperor. But if our Government has determined to take the course indicated in the last dispatches, it is equivalent to the settlement of the whole problem at once.

"EXTRA PAY" FALSEHOODS CORRECTED.—A good deal has been said by the Copperhead press in condemnation of the act of Congress, raising the salary of members an extra two thousand dollars. Much of it, too, has been falsely said. The charge that this appropriation was a piece of "Radical extravagance," is false. The proposition to increase the pay of Congressmen was moved in the House by Mr. Niblack of Indiana, a bitter Copperhead, and in the Senate by Mr. Riddle of Delaware, another bitter Copperhead. Having had its inception in Copperhead brains, the proposition was voted for by a large majority of all the Democrats in Congress, and a majority of the Union Congressmen voted against it. It, however, received a small majority of all, became a law and we have yet to hear of a Copperhead member who has failed to avail his pocket of the extra $2,000 which they are all swearing is "stolen out of the people's pockets." Not long since we saw it stated in a Copperhead newspaper, as a fact, that $712,000 had already been paid out of the U. S. Treasury on account of this "extra pay." There are at present in Congress one hundred and ninety-three members of the House and fifty-one in the Senate, making a total of two hundred and forty-four. Two thousand dollars to each, would make only a total of $488,000. This is something of a wide difference and yet the paper making the statement, conveyed the inference that $712,000 was only a part of what "Radical extravagance" would cost the country, in the matter of Congressional extra pay. These two Copperheads "facts," taken with the correct statements, serve to show the reckless and wild falsehoods upon which the Copperhead press depends to prejudice the people against the Union party. They are only two out of ten thousand.

"The Closing Scene in the House"—Card from Speaker Chenoweth.

[We cheerfully give place to the following note from Speaker Chenoweth, correcting an erroneous statement, which, through misinformation, we made a few days ago. We are glad to do the Speaker justice in the matter.—ED. OREGONIAN.]

ALBANY, October 29th, 1866.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I notice in your editorial of the 27th instant you state in your account of the closing scene in the House, that "a member said of a remark made by another member, 'that is a G—d d—d lie,' at the same time drawing his derringer, and that it was strictly in order, as he was not rebuked for his conduct." Now the facts are he was immediately called to order by the Speaker, and he arose and begged pardon of the House. He (Hendershott) may have drawn his derringer—I was afterwards told by a member that he kept his hand in his pocket, as he supposed, on his pistol, but he did not draw it out so as to be seen. I kept my eye on him, as I saw he was greatly excited.

I make this statement because the truth seems to require it, supposing your account of the matter has been the result of an unintentional error of your informant.

F. A. CHENOWETH.

IN A NEW CHARACTER.—In a speech at a town in Pennsylvania, A. Johnson got off the following:

Reconciliation and harmony is what the nation now needs; but when the work was nearly completed we found a conflict between the Executive and Legislative departments of the Government; and because the representative of the people had undertaken to restore the Government according to the Constitution, he had been denounced as a tyrant and usurper.

The "humble individual" has assumed several different characters since his accession to the Presidency, and now in contradistinction to Congress, he claims to be the "representative of the people." He evidently thinks that all the powers of the Government, Executive, Legislative and Judicial center in himself, and that he is therefore the sole representative of the people of the United States. This modesty of his in claiming to be the representative of the people to the exclusion of their chosen representatives, is worthy of the man who boasts that he might have been Dictator had he not been too incorruptible a patriot to be seduced by the offer of greater power.

SWINGING AROUND.—The Dayton Journal suggests that when talking about "swinging round the circle," President Johnson no doubt means that he began by voting for Breckinridge, and has swung back to that point.

Said Cicero: "They have no rights in the Republic, who have been false to it." Doctrine as true now as it was in the days when the Roman orator thundered against the conspiracy of Cati-

STATE ITEMS.

A Washington dispatch says the General Land Office has information that 11,000 acres of public lands were disposed of in Oregon during the month of August.

Hon. J. H. D. Henderson, M. C. started last week, overland, to Sacramento, on his way to Washington City.

Mr. Nathan Baird, of Brownsville, Linn county, had his left arm broken by a vicious horse, which he was attempting to shoe, on the 15th inst.

At the recent term of the circuit court in Josephine county, there were only four cases on the docket, all of which were tried and disposed of in one day.

Willow Springs, an old mining camp in Jackson county, has been within a year or two, revived by new discoveries, and the Sentinel says it now wears a very lively appearance.

The Lightning Gulch quartz-ledge, about five miles from Kerbyville, is still paying. This lead, it will be remembered, is the one which caused so great an excitement at its discovery last spring. So says the Sentinel.

We learn that the copper mines of Eagle creek are developing very richly. We lately saw some specimens of argentiferous quartz from that district which, after scorching, was thickly studded all over with silver globules. Eagle creek district is assuming considerable importance as a mining region.

FROM WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

The following items are from the Olympia Tribune of Oct. 27:

A MILITARY RESERVATION DISCONTINUED.

Mr. Denny has handed us the following letter recently received by him from the Adjutant General's Office, advising him of the discontinuance of the military reserve on Whidby Island. The reservation was of no use as such, and was located on several good donation claims, and Mr. Denny is entitled to much credit in securing its abandonment by the military department:

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, August 31, 1866.

HON. A. A. DENNY, Seattle, Washington Territory—Sir: I have the honor to inform you that the Secretary of War has granted your application of April 7th, 1866, for the discontinuance of the reservation for military purposes, at Penn's Cove, Washington Territory, and notice of the same has this day been communicated to the Secretary of the Interior, and to Major General Halleck.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant, E. D. TOWNSEND,
Assistant Adjutant General.

ANOTHER OLD SETTLER GONE.

Hon. S. Ford, well known throughout this Territory as an old resident and prominent man departed this life after a protracted sickness of several months, on the 22d day of October, inst. Judge Ford was born in the State of New York, in the year 1801, making him sixty-five years of age at his death. He came to this Territory, then Oregon, in October, 1845, just twenty-one years ago, and settled upon the claim where he died, which was then in Thurston county, in the year 1846, and from that time he identified himself with the public affairs of the county and Territory, having filled at different periods positions of public trust, and at the time of his death was a member of the Territorial Council.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mr. Nelson Barnes, of Tum Water, met with a serious accident on Tuesday of this week, by having one of the bones of his leg broken just above the ankle. He was engaged in loading lumber on a wagon at the saw mill in that place, when a heavy piece fell, striking him below the knee, breaking the leg as above stated.

The following, we clip from the Seattle Weekly of Oct. 22d:

MAN DROWNED.

D. J. McKay, who was working at Castillo's logging camp, on Bainbridge Island, some four miles from Port Orchard mill, below, about 11 o'clock on Sunday, Oct. 14th, taking with him some liquor, and remained there until evening, when he started on his return. About 9 or 10 o'clock in the evening a hallooing was heard at Castillo's from some one out on the bay, and Castillo took a boat and crossed some two miles and back, calling frequently, but receiving no answer nor could he see anything of the boat. He then returned to camp, when the call was again heard, but it quickly ceased. On Monday morning following the boat was found filled with water and McKay was missing. It is supposed that he was asleep in the boat—which was a small one, scarce large enough for two persons—as he was intoxicated—when the search was made for him, and that when the last call was heard, a wave had filled it, waking him up, when he fell overboard, and called out as he was sinking.

THE SNOQUALMIE PASS ROAD.

We learn from Mr. Wm. Perkins, who came in from the Snoqualmie road party on Saturday last, that the work is being pushed on, though they are now at work on a portion of the road that is hard to open.

KING COUNTY FAIR.

There was rather a meagre attendance at the fair held at this place last week, and very little interest was taken in it by the community generally, few persons having brought anything for exhibition. Among the articles displayed, however, were some varieties of excellent fruit and vegetables, quite as large and fine as any section of the country can boast of producing. The causes operating adversely to the success of the fair this season, were the unusually dry summer—in consequence of which the summer crops were inferior—and the depression in business which is felt so severely at present.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR IN WHATCOM COUNTY.

An Agricultural Fair was held in Whatcom on the 13th inst., the first one ever held in that county. After the fair a society was formed called the Whatcom Agricultural Society.

A CHINAMAN MURDERED BY INDIANS.

A Chinaman was murdered on the 15th inst., at Sehome, Whatcom county. The crime was committed by Samish Indians, two of whom were arrested; one, however, succeeded in making his escape from custody.

FIRE IN THE SEHOME MINE.

The fire in the mines at Sehome which was reported to have been extinguished during the fore part of last week, is again burning, the closing up of the chambers where the fire was, only having smothered it for a short time.

FROM VICTORIA.

From our files of Victoria papers to Oct. 24th, we clip the following:

ACCIDENT IN THE HARBOR.

The craft Transport, which was recently built on the Sound as a steamer for carrying stock and was going down to San Francisco to get her machinery, ran into Nathan's wharf this morning while running over from Lang's shipyard and smashed it up in a rather lively manner. She struck the wharf stem on and cut into it some six or eight feet, breaking up the timber like rotten sticks. The craft herself received no damage.

A SINGULAR ACCIDENT.

A man named Isaac Steadman, employed as a sawyer at B. C. Mill Co.'s mill in New Westminster, met with a very serious accident while squaring a log on the 29th ult. It appears that in using the gauging stick one end of it came in contact with the saw when in motion, driving the other end of it through the groin and inflicting an ugly wound; luckily none of the arteries were ruptured, else the consequences might have been fatal. Dr. Black dressed the wound, and the injured man is in a fair way of recovery.

MURDER OF AN INDIAN BOY.

On Friday night last about 11 o'clock the body of an Indian boy was found in an alley adjoining Cormorant street, with the head badly crushed, as if from blows with the butt end of a musket. The boy was well known in the city, having worked for Sir James Douglas, and recently for Mr. Leneven. The cause of the murder is supposed to have been to obtain money which the poor fellow was known to be possessed of. Three Bella-Coola Indians were arrested yesterday on suspicion, and the police are actively investigating the affair.

ROBBERY AT FORT HOPE.

On the night of the 17th inst., a small safe containing $3,000 was stolen by burglars from the store of James Corry, at Fort Hope. Mr. Corry arrived on the Active last evening in pursuit of the thieves.

INDIAN WAR AT KOOTENAY.

The Colonist says, the Kootenays, Pend d'Oreilles and several other tribes living on the other side of the Rocky Mountains, British Columbia, are in open war against the Blackfeet Indians, who inhabit (or infest) Montana Territory, and who have come through the Kootenay Pass for the purpose of raiding on their red brethren on this side of the line. The Blackfeet have approached within a few miles of the town of Fisherville, on Wild Horse Creek, and, about three weeks ago, their signal fires were discovered on the summit of a very high mountain overlooking the town. All the Kootenay Indians in the employ of Mr. Linklighter, of the Hudson Bay Company, have gone out to meet the invaders, and if possible to drive them back. The recent outrages on parties bound for Saskatchewan were perpetrated by Blackfeet Indians on Tobacco Plains.

Our Copperhead neighbor calls the political organization he represents "the only historic party in existence." Which we suppose means that it is the only dead party which absurdly insists on trying to live after it has been buried for six years. It is true that it is a historic party. It exists only in history; and is not a living power of to-day.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The Eastern line was out of order during the day, but is again working. No Eastern news received.

The testimony having been closed in the trial of Chas. P. Duane, the case is now being argued to the jury. Judge Hardy opened for the prosecution yesterday afternoon, and made a powerful argument. Mr. Owens followed for the defense, and was followed by Col. Jaynes, who was succeeded by Elisha Cook. The general theory of the defense is, that Duane shot Hoss in self-defense. The testimony was discussed at length and the arguments of counsel were eloquent. The court house is crowded and the passage ways thronged with spectators, eagerly listening to the speeches pro and con. District Attorney Porter will succeed Mr. Cook and close the case for the prosecution.

A fire took place last night about half past 11 o'clock, in an unoccupied two-story dwelling on Nevada street. The building, which belonged to W. H. Jessup, was entirely destroyed, and an adjoining building belonging to the same owner considerably damaged. An unoccupied building on the opposite side of the street, belonging to the same owner, was also set on fire, but went out from some cause. Strenuous efforts are being made by the authorities to catch the incendiaries, who, at the present time, seem to be plying their vocation with success. A reward of $500 has been offered by the city for the arrest of the incendiaries, and Mr. Jessup says he will add $250 on conviction of the guilty party. The damage last night was about $20,000, which is partially insured.

The Grand Jury yesterday afternoon presented the following true bills of indictment: Chas. Kouritzky for forgery, for forging a check on the Bank of California; Chas. Wilson, forgery, by forging the name of T. Lynch, of Napa; Edward F. Greely, forgery, by forging a certificate of deposit on Wells, Fargo & Co. for three hundred dollars.

This morning a fire broke out in a building on Harris street, near Beale, occupied by N. P. Perrine for the manufacture of mastic roofing, and in a short time the building and another adjoining, occupied by T. B. Lord, match manufacturer, was destroyed. Perrine's loss is about $15,000. Lord saved his machinery and most of his stock; loss about $400. No insurance.

Elizabeth Berry, a little daughter of F. G. Berry, was almost instantly killed yesterday afternoon by the falling of a ladder which had been placed against the house of Supervisor Torrey, and was accidentally knocked down by a cart. The ladder in falling struck her head, fracturing the skull, inflicting injuries from which she died in a few minutes.

A little daughter of J. J. Doyle, contractor, was scalded to death on Saturday last. Her grandmother had set a bucket of water on the floor for the purpose of bathing the child, when it stepped back and fell into the bucket, scalding it so badly that it died on Monday.

Mining Stocks.

No change in gold or sterling. There was a little activity in legal tenders this morning at 71 buying and 71½ selling. The mining stock market continues buoyant.

Shipping.

Arrived, Oct. 30th—Bark Sarah Maria, 70 days from Hong Kong, mdse; whale bark Massachusetts, 30 days from Fox Islands; whale bark Helen Mar, 20 days from Fox Islands, oil and whalebone. 31st—Schooner Amanda Gehr, 33 days from Okhotsk Sea, codfish.

Sailed, Oct. 31st—Br ship Imperial, Cork.

You can't make hair grow on every head but if anything will make it grow again on yours, "Martha Washington" Restorer will do it.

LOVELY PEARLS.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 89 First street, have recently added some beautiful SUN PEARLS to their collection, and continue as usual to lead all others for fine PHOTOGRAPHS, ALBUM PICTURES, CARTES DE VISITE, MELAINOTYPES, etc. The excellence of the work done at this GALLERY receives the daily approbation of the public. The weather makes no difference in taking a picture.

ANOTHER WAR THREATENED.—As the Fall trade begins, there seems to be no end to the competitors for low prices, and it is therefore to the interest of the public to know that Messrs. KOHN & FISHEL, at the ST. LOUIS STORE, NO. 111 FRONT STREET, sell the best quality of Custom-Made Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c. at such low prices as to astonish the oldest inhabitant. "Competition is the life of trade," therefore call in and examine the stock and compare it with the prices elsewhere.

BUCHTEL'S PREMIUM GALLERY was represented at the State Fair, as it always has been, and did take the FIRST PREMIUM as usual. His work stands for itself and does not require bombastic puffs in self-written cards, to recommend itself to the public. All kinds of work in the art furnished in the very latest styles.

THE APPROPRIATION.—Our citizens will be pleased to learn that the U. S. officers are about to take steps to obtain as the appropriation made by Congress of $15,-000 to be used in the improvement of the navigation of the Willamette river. Through the kindness of Mr. McCracken we have the following letter of instruction to Lieut. Heuer, of the Engineer corps:

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., October 24th, 1866.

LIEUT. W. H. HEUER, U. S. Engineers, Sir: You will proceed by steamer to Portland, Oregon, and there make an examination of the Willamette river from the falls at Oregon City to its mouth. At Portland you will confer with the President of the Oregon Steam Navigation Co., and others who are interested in the navigation of the Willamette, and will collect all possible information with regard to the obstructions to navigation in that river, and what has already been done towards remedying them; the manner in which the operations have been conducted; the amounts already expended: the character and cost of the dredging machines used there; the reported nature of the bottom; the nature of the banks, and all statistical and other information that can be collected in a visit of inspection. If a record of a river gauge has been kept at Portland or vicinity, you will ascertain the result. You will make copies of all maps of soundings &c, that may have been made and which you are allowed to copy. In fact you will collect all possible information concerning the nature of the river and its obstructions, with a view of making a full written report on your return. You will endeavor to ascertain also at Portland the nature of the Columbia river above the Dalles and the obstructions in it. It is probable you can there ascertain the very data useful in obtaining the appropriation for a survey of the Upper Columbia and the special objects they had in view. With the information collected there, you will use your best judgment as to the necessity of making a personal examination. If so, you will proceed to the Dalles and thence to Walla Walla, collecting and reporting all information that will be of value concerning that portion of the river.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
R. S. WILLIAMSON,
Brevet Lieut. Col. U. S. A., Maj. of Engineers.

[illegible] COURT.—In Recorder's Court yesterday appeared Jno. Wilson, charged with hauling within the city limits without having taken out a licence. He plead in extenuation that all the hauling done by him was the transportation of a lot of cordwood which he had piled on his own premises, and that he had not been engaged in selling and delivering wood to persons in the city. The decision in this case was deferred until to-day.——Clementia Fritz was charged with having put poison upon his premises for the purpose of killing [illegible] cats, dogs, &c, of his neighbors, and endangering the lives of children. It seems that the chickens had been committing some depredations upon the cabbage patch of Mr. Fritz who resorted to this summary [illegible] the nuisance. A lady testified that she [illegible] the Fritz place several similar pieces of [illegible] the [illegible] patch, and when she asked him [illegible], he stated that he intended to kill [illegible] came into the garden and fed upon his plants. Mr. Mooney the complainant, testified that he found the bread upon the ground, and that some he had [illegible] piece of bread spread with the poison [illegible] the Court. He stated that he had taken [illegible] and found that it was poison. Mr. C. H. [illegible] that he is druggist by profession, and [illegible] the bread and the substance upon it, [illegible] spread upon the bread was a preparation of [illegible], and is a corrosive poison. Mr. [illegible] that he is a druggist, and that the [illegible] upon the bread is phosphorus paste and that it is poison. There appeared no extenuating circumstances in the case. No witnesses were called for the defense. [illegible] to be of an unsound mind, and has been [illegible]; but if his malady assumes [illegible] form and his vagaries will prompt him to [illegible], he should be sent to the Asylum. He was held for trial, and his bail fixed at $500, in default of which, he was sent to jail.

[illegible] COURT.—Before Judge Hoffman, in his capacity [illegible] justice, yesterday appeared the case of James McElrath, against S. Sherlock defendant. Mr. Mason appeared for plaintiff and Mr. Logan for defendant. The [illegible] founded upon an order drawn by J. H. Perry [illegible] and in favor of McElrath. Sherlock accepted the order by giving McElrath an order upon Mr. Watkinds, of Salem, for the amount of $42 25 to be paid to Mr. Martin, a creditor of McElrath's, at that time. Mr. Watkinds told Martin that in a few weeks he would pay it, which arrangement was perfectly satisfactory to Martin. In five days after Watkinds had accepted [illegible] order and agreed with Martin that he would have the money, the failure of J. H. Perry & Co. took place, when Sherlock telegraphed to Watkinds not to pay the order, and when at the time agreed upon Martin came for the money, Watkinds refused to pay, alleging as an excuse his orders from Mr. Sherlock. McElrath then sues Sherlock for the amount. Defendant [illegible] to the complaint for the reason that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause [illegible] by plaintiff against defendant. The demurrer [illegible], it was argued that McElrath was not [illegible] in interest as he had received his pay when his order was accepted, and that Martin was the real party [illegible] and the one who should bring suit.

THE B[illegible].—This extensive work was begun the [illegible] August according to the plans of and under the [illegible]dence of Capt. J. Kellogg, and reflects much credit on the energy and liberality of the President and Directors of the P. T. Co., and is an honor to the State. [illegible] of extension nearly reaching their Canemah [illegible], and is raised higher than the high water mark [illegible]. It is constructed as follows: Three parallel timbers 15 inches square (all the timbers average this size) are bolted to the bedrock with 1¼ inch iron. Cross timbers laid on and bolted to form a bottom; three timbers are bolted on each side with cross-ties every ten feet [illegible] feet high. This huge bin of timber and iron is 2,100 feet long, 20 feet wide in the main on the top and 32 feet wide at the angles, and from 12 to 17 feet high. There were twenty-two tons of iron bolts used to fasten this [illegible] barrier, and the workmen are now loading it with hundreds of thousands tons of rock. This work is [illegible] about complete and ready for use.

[illegible]—By the Senator yesterday, quite a number of well-known citizens of the interior arrived, en route for [illegible], the Eastern States and the Sandwich Islands. Among the number, we hear that Dr. McCully and T. McF. Patton, with their wives, Horace Holden, John Harris, and perhaps others, of Salem, are en route for the Sandwich Islands. They intend to go by the bark Eldridge which, it is understood, will sail next Tuesday. One or two of them—which includes the always jovial Thompson—are going mostly for the fun of the thing, but the [illegible] are seeking the benefits to health of a sea-voyage (including sea-sickness—ugh!) and a milder climate than is usually furnished to order, or otherwise, in Oregon or California. If we have any influence with the [illegible] of the weather—and we flatter ourself that nobody [illegible] we shall use it to secure for the adventurers, fair breezes and a safe return.

THE [illegible] PENITENTIARY.—Gov. Woods and the Commissioners of the Penitentiary,—Messrs. Moores, Atkinson and [illegible], came down yesterday, on business connected with the [illegible] of the old penitentiary building and appurtenances. The whole matter of proprietorship of [illegible] on which the building stands has always been in such of a muddle, and it will be a relief to all parties to have it definitely settled.

BUSY TUGS.—We noticed the tugs Eagle and U. S. Grant towing the booms sold by Messrs. Harbaugh & [illegible] to the mill of Carter, Hayden & Co. The booms reached for a long distance down the river. The Eagle [illegible] and U. S. Grant had an extensive job on its hands.

[illegible].—The steamer Senator brought last evening [illegible] pkgs butter, 143 boxes apples, 9 cases woolen goods, [illegible] bbls dried apples, 24 gunnies bacon, 128 sks flour, [illegible] eggs, 216 sks feed, 2 cases boots—pkgs plunder, [illegible] horses.

[illegible]—The steamship Oriflamme, Francis Connor, [illegible], will sail from this port for San Francisco direct at eight o'clock this evening. We understand that there will be a grand rush of passengers seeking cabin [illegible]. She will no doubt take as many as she can accommodate.

THE TROUPE.—The Fannie Troupe took to Vancouver last [illegible] a large lot of Commissary stores from McCraken, Merrill, & Co. to the commissary at Fort Vancouver a portion of the contract obtained by them. The steamer also took 43 horses for the cavalry service.

[illegible] Mr. Charles Barrett is busily engaged in the removal of his stock of books, etc., from his old stand to the room lately occupied by the National Bank. Both business, we understand, are to be consolidated in the one.

CHANGE OF BASE.—Mr. Lucien Heath, formerly Secretary of State and late a merchant of Salem, with his family, leaves to-day for California, with the intention of locating permanently in that State—at Santa Cruz, we believe.

COUNCIL.—The council met last evening at the usual hour and adjourned to meet at half past seven o'clock. There was not a quorum to do business, but two [illegible] being present.

AGENT.—Mr. F. Barclay has been appointed agent for the New England Life Insurance Company. Mr. Amory [illegible], was formerly its agent in this city.

EAST PAPERS.—We received from McCormick yesterday a bundle of late Eastern and California papers. He never fails to get them on the arrival of the steamer.

THE HUNT.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt brought last [illegible] from the Dalles a large number of miners.

[illegible].—The messenger of Wells, Fargo, & Co. brought last evening $15,000 in Treasure.

[illegible] Messages at the telegraph office uncalled for, Dan'l Jones and Henry Pelker.

The Sacramento Union has a dispatch which states that the Union majority in Ohio is 43,310. Gov. Cox's majority last year was 30,080. Union gain since last year, 13,230.

The United States has 72 iron-clads, France 62, and the ruler of the wave, England only 21.

[illegible] EFFECTIVE.—BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are excellent lozenges for the relief of Hoarseness or Sore Throat. They are certainly exceedingly effective. We have known several instances in which troublesome Coughs have ceased very speedily after one or two Troches were taken.—Christian World, London, Eng.

What Experienced Mill Men think of the Portable Steam Saw Mills built by the Oregon Iron Works:

PORTLAND, Oct. 18th, 1866.

TO THE OREGON IRON WORKS:

Gentlemen:—The Portable Steam Saw Mill which we purchased of you last spring for Pend d'Oreille Lake, has been in operation during the past season, and has more than met our expectations in its performance. With three men, we turn out from three to four thousand feet, and with five men, five thousand feet per day of ten hours; and we take pleasure in recommending these mills as the most SUBSTANTIAL, DESIRABLE AND PERFECT MILLS IN USE, and especially adapted to the wants of this country, on account of their compact form, ease of transportation and the facility with which they can be set up and put in operation. Although subjected to the most severe tests, no repairs have been required.

CIRCULAR
To the Officers and Soldiers Oregon Volunteers.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
SALEM, Oct. 23, 1866.

BY RECENT ACTS OF CONGRESS ALL OFFICERS of the Volunteer Service who were in Commission March 3d, 1865, and subsequently mustered out after April 9th, 1865, are entitled to three months extra pay proper.

Enlisted men are entitled to additional bounty in certain cases, by Acts of Congress of July 28th, 1866, and the following rules and regulations, together with the form of application adopted by the War Department, are published for the guidance and benefit of all concerned:

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE PAYMENT OF BOUNTIES, UNDER THE ACT TO EQUALIZE BOUNTIES, APPROVED JULY 28, 1866.

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, September 26, 1866.

1. All applications shall be filed within the period of six months, from the 1st day of October, 1866, and before any payments are made, shall be classified by regiments, battalions, or other separate organizations, and no application filed after that period shall be settled until after the former shall have been paid.

2. No application shall be entertained unless accompanied by the original discharge of the soldier and the affidavit required by the fourteenth section of the Act, and the further affidavit that he has not received, nor is he entitled to receive from the United States, under any laws or regulations prior to the Act of July 28, 1866, more than $100 bounty for any and all military service rendered by him during the late rebellion, over and above the amount therein claimed.

3. All applications for the additional bounty authorized by this Act from surviving soldiers shall be in the form hereinafter prescribed, and the evidence of identity shall be the same as is now required, and applications from the heirs of deceased soldiers shall be in the form now required by the Treasury Department.

4. As soon as the examination of the claims of any regiment, or other independent organization, shall have been properly acted upon the Paymaster General shall take the necessary steps for their prompt payment.

5. A register shall be kept in the Paymaster General's office, and also in the office of the Second Auditor, of all claims presented under the law, in which the claimants will be classified by regiments, etc. If the claims be allowed, the amount of bounty paid to each will be noted, and if rejected the cause of rejection will be distinctly stated.

6. In the applications for bounty, as required by the third of these rules, the affidavit shall state each and every period of service rendered by the claimant, and also that he never served otherwise than as herein stated.

7. Organizations irregularly in the service of the United States, or called out for special purposes, as State Militia, Home Guards, etc., and not included in the general bounty laws, are not included within the meaning of the Act.

8. Soldiers enlisted for "three years or during the war," who were discharged by reason of the termination of the war, shall be considered as having served out the period of their enlistment, and are entitled to bounty under this Act.

9. The minority of heirs, claimants for bounty under this Act, must be proven to have existed at the date of its passage. Parents shall receive jointly the bounty to which they may be entitled as heirs, unless the father has abandoned the support of his family, in which case it shall be paid to the mother. Non-residence in the United States shall not be a bar to the claim of heirs, who would otherwise legally inherit.

The provisions of the Act exclude from its benefits the following classes:

1. Those who, after serving the full period of their enlistment, were dishonorably discharged at its expiration.

2. Those discharged during enlistment by way of favor or punishment.

3. Those discharged on account of disability contracted in the service, but not occasioned by wounds received "in the line of duty," who shall not have previously served two or three years respectively at the time of discharge.

4. Those discharged on account of disability existing at the time of their enlistment.

5. The heirs of those who have died since their discharge of wounds or disease not contracted in the service and in the line of duty.

6. The surviving soldiers and heirs of deceased soldiers who, under previous laws, have received or are entitled to receive a bounty of more than $100 from the United States.

7. The surviving soldiers, as well as the heirs of deceased soldiers, when such soldiers have bartered, sold, assigned, loaned, transferred, exchanged or given away their final discharge papers, or any interest in the bounty provided by this or any other Act of Congress.

8. The Act of the 28th of July, 1866, creates no right of inheritance beyond those vested by the law under which these heirs received or were entitled to receive the original bounty, and debars certain classes, brothers and sisters of heirs that were entitled to receive the original bounty, from any claim for the additional bounty provided by this Act.

Respectfully referred to the Attorney General for his opinion on the point whether the rules and regulations as within amended are in conformity with law.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
September 14, 1866. Secretary of War.

I have examined these amended regulations, and am of opinion they are in conformity with law.

HENRY STANBERY,
September 15, 1866. Attorney General.

The foregoing rules and regulations are published for the information and guidance of all concerned.

By order of the Secretary of War.

E. D. TOWNSEND,
Assistant Adjutant General.

This is but a just acknowledgement of the services of our brave volunteers who have imperilled their lives upon a hundred battle fields, or have left home with all its dear associations, to defend our frontier and protect the lives of our citizens from the murderous attacks of a savage foe, and I sincerely desire that the brave volunteers of Oregon should receive the full benefit arising from this Act, and for whose benefit I have issued this Circular.

It will be necessary to strictly follow the foregoing rules and forms.

All applications must be made direct to the Second Auditor at Washington, D. C.

All Soldiers desiring that I should attend to this business for them will make application to this office either by letter or in person. Very respectfully,

Yours obediently,

Mustang Liniment.

Intrinsic virtue alone could ever insure the success met by the Mexican Mustang Liniment. For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Swellings, etc, upon man, or Spavin, Ringbone, Poll Evil, Scratches, Strains, etc., upon beasts, its effects are instantaneous, soothing and wonderful. It saves time, suffering and expense to have it always in the house. None genuine unless in a steel plate label, with signature of G. W. Westbrook, and having stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. over the top.
Sold by all Dealers.

Lyon's Kathairon.

Lyon's Kathairon is a most delightful article as a Hair Dressing—to eradicate scurf and dandruff, to keep it clean, soft, and silky, and the head cool. It also prevents the hair from falling off and turning gray, and promotes its growth upon prematurely bald heads. It is sold by all dealers. E. THOMAS LYON, N. Y.

Lyon's Extract Jamaica Ginger.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for Indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, Flatulency, etc., where a warming stimulant is required. Its careful preparation and entire purity make it a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold everywhere, at 50 cts. per bottle. Ask for "LYON'S" Pure Extract. Take no other.

CAUTION.—See that the private U. S. stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. is over each bottle. None other is genuine.

Lyon's Flea Powder.

DEATH TO FLEAS.—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Magnetic Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of fleas, ticks, bed-bugs, roaches, etc.; that it is perfect poison to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to the human species and domestic animals. The genuine has the signature of E. LYON, and the private stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation or counterfeit. Any druggist will procure the genuine if you insist you will have no other.

G. VENARD'S
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day behold increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Summer Eve

Fair Summer Eve sweet as the parting stream,
To parch ed lips and Arabian sand
Calm as the still eclipse of a dream
That wafts the exile to his native land.

Kind Summer Eve life s hard realities
Are melted by thy spirit soothing breath,
The stricken heart forgets its t iac es
The dying dreams not hopelessly of death

Cool Summer Eve! thy gentle murmurings
Tell me of happy moments ever fled,
Nor heed the stub rn course of nature s wings,
But dare the footsteps of the past to tread

Sweet Summer Eve! I ve sat a d watched thee die,
And one by one the t mid starlets shine,
Celestial petals of her glittering eye,
When loving hand was fondly clasped in mine

Dear Summer Eve! we sat and watched thee die
From twilight shadows into gloom of night,
Nor recked how fast the happy hours could fly
When love had lent his pinions to their flight

Still Summer Eve thou hast full many a tale,
Fain would I lingering hearken yet to thee,
Charmer of grief though other loves may fail
A welcome thou wilt ever meet from me

The Pittsburg Convention.

This meeting of the soldiers and sailors of the Union was evidently one of the most enthusiastic gatherings ever held in this country It is computed that there were over 200 000 strangers present in Pittsburg on the occasion, including delegations from every army corps in the service "Every delegation," says one of the reports carried a flag that had been borne in battle Maryland had three, West Virginia those of the 1st 3d, 4th, 7th and 8th West Virginia Veteran Infantry The Pennsylvania delegation had several One delegation from the Western counties of Pennsylvania carried the flag of Battery B 1st Pennsylvania Light Artillery, it was all battered and torn, having been on many a hard fought battle-field This was a famous battery during the rebellion, was commanded by Capt Cooper, and attached to the Artillery Brigade, First Corps Army of the Potomac It was the battery that opened the fight at Gettysburg, and was afterward attached to the Fifth Corps Nearly all of the surviving members of the battery were present as delegates "

In the Convention, every division, Corps and Army of the United States was represented There were the spear of the First, the three-leaf clover of the Second, the rectangle of the Third, the Maltese cross of the Fifth, the Greek cross of the Sixth Corps, which represented the old Army of the Potomac, the star of the famous Twentieth Corps, the cartridge box of Logan's Fifteenth, the arrow of Blair's Seventeenth and the acorn of the Fourteenth Corps were represented

Just as the Convention was being called to order, the Wisconsin delegation entered the hall, carrying with them three stand of colors which had belonged to some of the Wisconsin regiments carried in battle by them They also had with them the American Eagle "Old Abe" This eagle belonged to a private soldier in one of the Wisconsin regiments He kept it with him in camp, and it was with him in every battle It was very tame and a great favorite with the members of the regiment During the latter part of the war Old Abe's owner was killed in battle The eagle was taken in charge by some of his former owner's comrades and became the common property of the regiment He was mustered out with the rest of the boys, and has since been residing quietly at home Old Abe was given a prominent position on the platform, where he sat perched over the national colors

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND THE CONGRESS —The London Daily News has the following.

Congress, though asserting the unconstitutional character of Johnson's assumption of reconstructive power, agreed to admit all that had been done, and to carry on the work from the point to which Johnson had brought it. It proposed that the amendment to the Constitution should be made guaranteeing the civil rights of the negroes, the public debt and the past legislation of the North, and redressing the inequality of representation which makes the Southern citizens weigh half as much again in the scales of the Constitution as a citizen of the North Johnson's friends supported this, the South were known to be willing to accept it, and the only comment made upon it, even by those who were hostile to it, was, that it was a small result to so much labor It was proposed that on the ratification of this amendment the Southern representatives should be admitted, and the Union rendered safe by this simple redressal of representative inequality should be restored at once That proposal was the test of Johnson's statesmanship and the touch stone of his sincerity It contained nothing he had not himself advocated, and nothing which North and South would not have agreed upon at once had Johnson joined with Congress in recommending it. But it was not needful that Congress should consult him in making the proposal, and it passed him over Then it was that Johnson was found wanting Had he put aside his personal pique, and thought only of his country, he would have taken the Congressional proposal as an olive branch, the South would have accepted it at his hands, the Northern States would have assembled their legislators in special session to ratify it, and by the time Congress adjourned, not only Tennessee, but all the Southern States, excepting Texas, might have been enjoying the privilege of representation in Congress But Johnson failed his country. At the moment when he could have done the Union essential service he chose to serve himself. An ill tempered message was fulminated against the proposal of Congress, and the word went forth that the Union was not to be restored if it could not be restored in Andrew Johnson's own way. From that moment he threw himself into the arms of the South. Everywhere the old Democracy, who would have closed the war by installing Davis in Lincoln's place, rallied around a new leader, and the fight for Southern ascendancy was re-opened on the field of Northern politics. The protests against radicalism are a blind—the ascription to Congress of the blame of delay is a pretence, the real object of the movement which the Philadelphia Convention has sanctioned is the restoration of the South without the guarantees the Congressional proposal provides The choice is not between what Congress has talked and what the President has tried to do, but between what Congress has done and what Johnson has desired The real issue is whether the Constitution shall be amended so as to give equal civil rights to the freedmen and equal political representation to the North with the South, or whether the old Union shall be restored with Southern preponderance and no provision for the protection of the freedmen in their rights. Congress represents the policy of caution, and the wise healing its proposals would bring, Johnson represents a policy of concession which would give back to the South nearly all that the sacrifices of the war have purchased from it Congress is for a lasting Union, founded on equal justice to both races and sections. Andrew Johnson is for leaving the negro to his fate and the North to its diminished share of Federal power Congress would take precautions which are admitted to be wise and just before entering again into federal alliance with those who have misused their power—Johnson would have no real precautions taken, but would re-marry the sundered sections in a hurry, leaving the North to repent at leisure We are not, therefore, at all surprised that our cotemporaries who supported the South all through the war are loud in their support of Johnson now, but the same desire for the welfare of the great people who have sprung from the loins of England which decided our sympathy for the Northern cause, and made us rejoice in the Northern victory, determines our best hopes and wishes to the side of Congress, which really represents all the best interests of human progress in the "reconstruction" strife which is raging now

A DEMAND FOR JEFF. DAVIS RELEASE —The call for the release of Jefferson Davis is kept up with increasing clamor The Georgia Constitutionalist says

"The old excuse of policy is threadbare to us now We are sick of being told that it would embarrass the President to let him go Justice, mercy, honor, never embarrass any man If Mr Johnson thinks he must let Mr Davis die in captivity lest his release should strengthen the radicals, what does he mean by making such defiant speeches against them as that delivered by him in Washington on Saturday last? If policy doesn't forbid his denouncing them to their very teeth as tyrants, oppressors and scoundrels why should policy forbid his acting a little that way, and letting a dying captive go? Come let us see a little conciliation We have heard about it long enough. If it is ever going to mean anything, let it mean it now "

PRESIDENT ROBERTS ON PRESIDENT JOHNSON —In a speech to the Fenian Brotherhood at Troy, lately, President Roberts said "If Johnson came before Irishmen for their votes they ought to be strangled if they gave them He had promised to be the Moses of the negro, and he had turned out to be a Pharaoh to crush them He would like to be their Moses but Irishmen were afraid of his turning Pharaoh again The one thing Johnson did at the request of the Fenians was to release John Mitchell from Fortress Monroe but the Fenians have since discovered that it was on account of his sympathy for rebels, and not for them It is evident that a large proportion of the Irish vote is lost to the Democratic party so long as Andrew Johnson is dictator of that organization "

LAWS OF OREGON,

Passed at the Fourth Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly held September 1866

AN ACT to amend an act to incorporate the city of Corvallis, in the county of Benton, passed January, A D 1857

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

Section 1 That section five of said law be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof.

Sec 5 Said officers shall be elected annually by the qualified voters of said city voting in the wards where they reside on the second Monday in June of each year, commencing with the second Monday of June A D 1867 the clerk of the circuit court in said city shall post in three public places in said city, at least (7) seven days before said election in each year a notice designating the place where said election will be held in said town and thereafter and before the election shall appoint some person in said ward to receive the votes at the place designated and the person so appointed shall receive the votes as aforesaid and within five days thereafter shall make returns of said votes to said clerk, and he shall forthwith canvass the same, and to the persons respectively having the highest number of votes for Mayor Recorder, Marshal and Treasurer he shall give certificates of election, and to the two persons in each ward having the highest number of votes for Aldermen he shall give certificates of their election as Aldermen of such ward

Sec 2 The officers elected at the last election and now holding office in said city shall continue to hold until their successors are elected and qualified
Approved, October 24, 1866

AN ACT for the relief of Grant county

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

Section 1 That the county of Grant be allowed to retain, and be released from the payment of the sum of one thousand and twenty dollars and eighty-eight cents, the same being the amount which the said county of Grant is in arrears to the State, as delinquent tax from said county to the State, for the year 1865

Sec 2 This act to take effect and be in force from and after the first day of February, 1867
Approved Oct 24, 1866

AN ACT to fix the times of meeting of the Commissioners of the County Court of Linn county

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

Section 1 That hereafter the commissioners of the county court shall in Linn county, in this State meet on the first Wednesday of each month for the transaction of county business, and at such other times as the county judge shall direct

Sec 2 Inasmuch as it is doubtful as to the proper times of meeting of the commissioners, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.
Approved Oct. 24, 1866.

AN ACT to change the location of the county seat of Baker county.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

Section 1 That at the next general election held in the county of Baker and State of Oregon, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of said county of Baker to put in nomination the town of Baker to be voted upon at said election for the county seat of said county

Sec 2 The votes cast for and against said place shall be kept correctly and counted as in other cases of election, and if it be found that said town of Baker receives the majority of all the votes cast, then said town shall be declared the county seat of said county
Approved October 24, 1866.

AN ACT to aid the Corvallis and Yaquina Bay Wagon Road Company

WHEREAS, The last session of the Congress of the United States passed a certain act donating lands to the State of Oregon, which act is here set forth, to-wit

AN ACT granting lands to the State of Oregon to aid in the construction of a military road from Corvallis to the Yaquina Bay.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled

Section 1 That there be and is hereby granted to the State of Oregon to aid in the construction of a military road from Corvallis to Yaquina Bay alternate sections of unoccupied public lands designated by odd numbers for three sections in width on each side of said road, Provided, that the lands hereby granted shall be exclusively applied to the construction of said road, and shall be disposed of only as the work progresses, and the same shall be applied to no other purpose whatever, and provided, further, that any and all lands heretofore reserved to the United States by act of Congress or other competent authority, be and the same are reserved from the operations of this act, except so far as it may be necessary to locate the route of said road through the same, in which case the right of way is granted

Sec 2 And be it further enacted, That the said lands hereby granted to said State shall be disposed of by the Legislature thereof for the purposes aforesaid, and for no other, and the said road shall be and remain a public highway for the use of the Government of the United States, free from tolls and other charges upon the transportation of any property, troops or mails of the United States

Sec 3 And be it further enacted, That said road shall be constructed with such graduation and bridges as to permit its regular use as a wagon road, and in such other special manner as the State of Oregon may prescribe

Sec 4 And be it further enacted, That the lands hereby granted to said State, shall be disposed of only in the following manner, that is to say, that a quantity of land not exceeding thirty sections for said road may be sold, and when the government of said State shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior, that any ten continuous miles of said road are completed, then another quantity of land hereby granted, not to exceed thirty sections, may be sold, and so from time to time until said road is completed, and if said road is not completed within five years, no further sales shall be made, and the land remaining unsold shall revert to the United States,

Therefore, Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon.

Section 1 That there is hereby granted to the Corvallis and Yaquina Road Company all lands, right of way, rights and privileges heretofore granted or pledged to this State by act of Congress in this act heretofore recited, for the purpose of aiding said company in constructing the road mentioned and described in said act of Congress, upon the conditions and limitations therein described

Section 2 There is also hereby granted and pledged to said company, all moneys, lands, rights, privileges and immunities which may be hereafter granted to this State to aid in the construction of such road, for the purpose and upon the condition and limitations herein mentioned, or which may be mentioned in any further grant of money or lands to aid in constructing such road

Sec 3 Inasmuch as there is no law upon the subject, at the present time, this act shall take effect from and after its passage
Approved October 24 1866.

AN ACT for the relief of Baker county

WHEREAS it appears by the report of the Secretary of State, that on the 6th day of September A D 1866, there remained on his books the sum of thirty one hundred and forty six 08-100 dollars, taxes due the State of Oregon by the county of Baker, the same having been incurred from the formation of that county until that date, and

WHEREAS, said county is on the frontier, where many transient persons are assessed for personal taxes, and for poll taxes, from whom the same cannot be collected, by which reason this delinquency in a great part occurs, and

WHEREAS, by the division of said county of Baker and creation of Union county, the population and wealth of that county was reduced to include merely a mining population, mostly of no permanence or wealth, Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

Section 1 All sums of money due from the county of Baker to the State of Oregon on the 1st day of September, A D, 1866, and uncollected by said county on the 1st day of March, 1867 are hereby remitted

Sec 2 On the 1st day of March, 1867, the Treasurer of Baker county shall return to the Secretary of State an account of the amount collected by himself and his predecessor of taxes due the State from the said county of Baker, and on or before the said 1st day of September, 1867 shall pay unto the State Treasurer the balance due the State of said delinquent tax

Sec 3 On receipt of said statement, and his receiving satisfactory proof that the amount so collected as herein named has been paid into the State Treasury by the said county of Baker, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to cancel all such remaining delinquency, said amount so cancelled not to exceed the sum of two thousand dollars
Approved, Oct. 24, 1866.

AN ACT to provide for certain contingent expenses of the Legislative Assembly

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

SECTION 1. That the sum of three thousand dollars in addition to other appropriations for Legislative purposes or so much thereof as may be necessary be and the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to enable the Treasurer to pay to C H. Burch, Thos Stanley J I C l.. s and M M Dodson, contestants for seats in House of Representatives and J A Drinkwater contestant for a seat in the Senate the same mileage and per diem for the time of their actual attendance as members are entitled to receive for like services and to the witnesses who attended upon the summons of the House the same fees and mileage as witnesses in the Circuit Court The following sums are hereby allowed respectively to the persons hereinafter named for services and attendance as witnesses in the case of contested seats from Polk county to wit

SOMETHING NEW!
THE NEW LIGHT!
DANFORD'S
Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIversal necessity A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney and without unpleasant odor while in use That fruitful source of expense trouble and annoyance, the chimney is in DANFORD S COAL & GAS LAMP avoided It is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps; it gives the cheapest artificial light that can be used yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than one cent per hour or double the quantity of light of ordinary Chimney Lamp for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper light ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufresne, corner of Morrison and First streets.
